

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

4	Young Tae Bang, et al.,	Case No. 2:23-cv-01428-CDS-NJK
5	Plaintiffs	Order Granting Defendants' Motion for
6	v.	Partial Summary Judgment
7	New Prime, Inc., et al.,	[ECF No. 25]
8	Defendants

10 Defendants New Prime, Inc. and Jesus Espinoza move for partial summary judgment on 11 plaintiffs' claim for punitive damages. ECF No. 25.¹ Plaintiffs do not oppose the motion. ECF No.
12 27. After reviewing the complaint and the exhibits attached to the motion, I agree that, even in 13 the light most favorable to the plaintiffs, summary judgment on the punitive damages claim is 14 warranted. Therefore I grant defendants' motion for partial summary judgment [ECF No. 25].
15 In accordance with my prior order (ECF No. 26), the parties must submit a second proposed 16 joint pretrial order by April 11, 2025.

17 | Dated: March 11, 2025

Cristina D. Silva
United States District Judge

25 ¹ The motion for partial summary judgment was filed on behalf of defendants “GUILLERMO PEGUERO
26 (incorrectly identified as GABRIEL P. GUILLERMO), NEW PRIME, INC. and PEGUERO TRUCKING SERVICES, LLC.” ECF No. 25 at 1. Because New Prime, Inc. and Jesus Espinoza are the named defendants in this case, a corrected image was filed on March 10, 2025. ECF No. 29.